Attestation Letter

An attestation letter will only be accepted if a confirmation letter is not available. An attestation letter refers to a detailed letter from a relevant third party, e.g. senior colleague.

PAGE 5: EDUCATION AND TRAINING CENTRAL TO THE PRACTICE OF PSYCHOTHERAPY

CRPO has a list of recognized education programs on the Education Programs page of our website.

1. For each program or course you enter on this page of the application, provide one of the following documents:

Academic Transcript or Letter from Institution (for recognized or non-recognized programs completed in Canada, or recognized programs completed outside of Canada)

Academic transcripts refer to official, hard copy transcripts (for institutions that issue transcripts, e.g. universities and colleges and some private psychotherapy education and training programs).

For institutions that do not issue transcripts (e.g. some private psychotherapy education and training institutes), submit a hard copy letter from the institution. The letter must be on institutional letterhead and include:

- name that matches the name you provided to CRPO;
- dates you attended the program;
- list of all learning activities (courses, seminars, etc.) you completed, the number of credits or hours for each activity, and your grade or result for each activity;
- whether you successfully completed the program, and what certificate or credential was awarded; and
- name and contact information of institution and senior official at institution.

Academic transcripts or a letter from the institution must be sent directly by the institution through mail or courier to CRPO at:
